October 2021 Shipping Wine Club Wines

CHOCOLATE!

Thank you for being a member of our Shipping Wine Club. Because we don't get to see you in the tasting room as often as we wish, we'd like to share a special treat. Philomath-based Moku Chocolate makes little slices of chocolate heaven that pair well with our Pinot noir. We've enclosed some MOKU Chocolates with your shipment.

Compton Old Vine Series
Llewellyn Pinot Noir 2015
$34/$30.60 2 bottle club
$27.20 6 bottle club

91 Rating – Wine Enthusiast 90
Rating – Pinot File

“Very pleasant aromas of chocolate, cherry and spice. The mid weight dark red cherry and blueberry flavors cascade through a welcome attack and mid palate, finishing with length and cherry-fueled goodness. Nicely balanced with added accents of spice, tobacco and saline.” 90 rating Pinot File

Willamette Valley
Pinot Noir 2017
$28/$22.40 club
Library Wine

91 Rating Wine Enthusiast and
Editors Choice

A nose of soft plum, roses, berries. A juicy, full-in-the-mouth wine with a balanced fresh acidity, lush berry/cherry flavor with hints of chocolate and more plum. Hints of spice, a layered wine – young and so promising.

Compton Old Vine Series
Alpine Pinot Noir 2015
$34/$30.60 2 bottle club
$27.20 6 bottle club

92 Points – Wine Enthusiast
94 Points – Prince of Pinot

Exceptional aromatic seduction, with aromas of crushed dark berries, underbrush and spice. Like a gift of heaven on the palate, with delicious mid weight flavors of black cherry, black raspberry and warm spices. Outstanding harmony with meticulous oak integration. This beauty really delivers the goods in a darker, riper fruited package with seamless tannin and acid integration.

Garden Series
OSU Woodhall Vineyard
Pinot Noir 2019
$28/$22.40 club

A nose of fresh berry fruit and hints of pie spice introduce the wine – along with an undercurrent of earth and forest floor. Immediately approachable, with commingled Oregon caneberry flavors: ripe blackberry, raspberry and loganberry: fresh and sweet with balanced fruit acidity, deep, smooth tannins, and a long finish of berries laced with cinnamon, star anise and a whisper of white pepper. Layers of varied berry, spice and earth evolve as you taste and the wine opens with exposure to air in the glass.

Hoot & Howl Vineyard

Cabernet Sauvignon 2018

$28/$22.40 club

Impressive body and full flavors. Dark cherries, cocoa, savory notes on a framework of strong but smooth tannins. Succulent, sweet spice in the mid palate and a medium long finish. Comparatively a bargain for what you get.

Garden Series

Sauvignon Blanc 2020

$20.00/$18.00

Oh my – this Sauvignon Blanc will delight your first whiff. An outstanding example of this varietal's nose of fresh herbs/citrus/sweet fruit and flowers, quite striking. Sleek, smooth and succulent all at once, honeysuckle, stone fruit, citrus, and spice flavors are tinged with hints of jasmine and slate. Long finish lingers, clean and smooth. Perfect paired with fish and lighter fare.

SEAO2 White

Sparkling Wines

$20/$17.50 wine club

Summer in a glass! Crafted from Oregon Pinot Gris and Gewürztraminer grapes, the white SEAO2 is not too sweet, not too dry – it is just right. I can pick out scents of fresh peach, grapefruit, pineapple and Gewürztraminer's classic lychee aroma. So much flavor – lime, lemon, pear, white nectarine and apple with a hint of honeysuckle, and a saline-like minerality on the finish.

Compton Estate

Rosé of Pinot Noir 2020

$22/$17.60 club

Crisp, refreshing raspberry and wild strawberry aromas and a trace of sweet apple overlaid with a delicate floral note. A sleek, silky texture introduces focused flavors of berries and a pretty hint of watermelon. The fruit is balanced by smooth acidity in an all embracing structure.
